Instructions

When to use this form

You can use this form to ask:

- your RRSP issuer to transfer the value of your RRSP annuity to another RRSP, a RRIF, an SPP, or a PRPP or to transfer it to buy another annuity;
- your RRIF carrier to transfer an excess amount to your RRSP, SPP, or PRPP or to buy an annuity.

How to complete this form

- Part 1 – The applicant (annuitant) requesting the direct transfer fills out Part 1. The applicant then prints and signs four copies of the form and gives them to the new RRSP or annuity issuer, RRIF carrier, SPP or PRPP administrator to which the property is to be transferred (the transferee).
  - If the transferee has a signed letter from the applicant requesting the direct transfer, the transferee must attach the letter and fill out and sign Part 1 of all four copies for the applicant.
- Part 2 – The transferee fills out and signs Part 2 of all four copies. The transferee then sends all copies of the form to the previous RRSP issuer, RRIF carrier or the SPP or PRPP administrator that will be transferring the property (the transferor).
- Part 3 – The transferor fills out and signs Part 3. The transferor then keeps one copy and sends the remaining three copies to the transferee along with the property being transferred.
- Part 4 – The transferee fills out and signs Part 4 of the remaining three copies. The transferee then returns a copy to the transferor, sends a copy to the annuitant or member, and keeps one copy for record purposes.

How to report the amounts transferred

Transferor: The transferor does not withhold tax on amounts that are transferred using this form.

An RRSP issuer who is transferring the value of an RRSP annuity reports the value on a T4RSP slip for the year of the transfer.

A RRIF carrier who is transferring a RRIF amount reports the amount on a T4RIF slip for the year of the transfer.

An SPP or PRPP administrator who is transferring the value of the SPP or PRPP reports the amount on a T4A slip for the year of the transfer.

Transferee: The RRSP issuer, RRIF carrier, SPP or PRPP administrator, or annuity issuer who is receiving the transfer, issues a receipt to the applicant.

Individual: The applicant attaches a copy of the T4RSP slip or T4RIF slip, as well as a copy of the receipt, to his or her income tax and benefit return for the year of the transfer. The applicant includes the amount shown on the T4RSP slip or T4RIF slip in taxable income, and deducts the amount shown on the receipt from taxable income.

Transfer from spousal or common-law partner RRSP or RRIF:

If the transfer is from a spousal or common-law partner RRSP or RRIF, the applicant may also have to complete Form T2205, Amounts from a Spousal or Common-law Partner RRSP, RRIF or SPP to Include in Income.

The applicant will have to complete Form T2205 if all of the following conditions exist:

- the applicant's spouse or common-law partner made a contribution to an RRSP of the applicant in the year of the transfer or in either of the two preceding years;
- the applicant is transferring the amount to buy an annuity that can be commuted in three years, or earlier; and
- either box 7a) or 7b) of Part 3 is ticked yes.
